NMCS Families,

We are officially in “basketball mode” now with the conclusion of the Fall season last week.

Thank you for how you have supported our student athletes and coaches this Fall. The postseason run by our volleyball team was greeted with tremendous energy and school spirit. I am proud of how our team competed and how our community represented. Thank you for showing off the “NMCS difference” by living out the “Comet Commitment.”

We have an exciting basketball season scheduled with a ton of optimism from our coaches and student athletes. While we have middle school boys’ basketball happening right now, please enjoy the next couple of weeks of downtime. I have been stressing to our student athletes and coaches the importance of breaks and finding some time for refreshment. Mr. VanNoord reminded us in chapel to find intentional time to invite Jesus Christ into our daily lives and allow for room to breathe in the midst of our everyday “stuff”. That is my prayer for our teams in the next couple of weeks, before the winter marathon begins.

Remember, it is always a great day to a Comet! Further updates can be found below. Go Comets!

Basketball Practice and Games

Please see below for the latest basketball practice information. Individual practice schedules are shared via coaches.

November 13 – High school boys’ basketball (first game on Nov. 30 home vs. Midland Calvary)

November 20 – High school girls’ basketball (first game on Dec. 5 at Western Michigan Christian)

January 8 – Middle school girls’ basketball (first game on Jan. 18 at Lake City)

Youth Basketball

Our 3rd through 6th grade girls’ and boys’ basketball travel teams are very parent driven. They rely on parent initiative and coaching volunteers. Unfortunately, the deadline to create a team for the girls’ basketball 3rd and 4th grade season was missed. However, there is good news and plenty of time to start up a boys’ basketball youth travel team. One team for 3rd and 4th and one team for 5th and 6th. Girls will be allowed to join the 3rd and 4th grade team. We do currently have a 5th and 6th grade team run by Carrie Stahl. Please contact myself or DaNay Tossey to get involved and please sign up here.
